I'm interested in building good-looking, high-performing experiences on the web. I have extensive experience both meeting challenging deadlines, and mapping out longer-term projects. I'm happy working in collaborative team settings, or on my own.

WORK EXPERIENCE

PXL Agency; Los Angeles, CA — 2017-2019. Built all film pages for FoxMovies.com; made updates to various Universal studio sites; built high-performing microsites for titles like Deadpool and American Horror Story; coded all promotional emails for Paramount Movies that went out to a mailing list of +200k; was part of a team that built multiple full-scale studio sites like DreamWorks.com.

Freelance; Los Angeles, CA — 2015-2017. Built many high-performance microsites, collaborating with clients and effectively communicating estimations.

AmeriCorps (Literacy First); Austin, TX — 2012-2014. Led a team of four full-time tutors; acted as liaison between the program directors and school staff; completed over 3,200 hours of community service.

EDUCATION

Epicodus, Portland, OR — 2015. Completed a 20 week, full-time bootcamp covering HTML/CSS, JavaScript, and PHP; attended weekly tech meetups.

University of Oregon — Spanish, 2006-2010. Earned a bachelor's degree in Spanish.
